International Choral Spotlights

Leonard Bernstein, Chichester Psalms

The spectacular entrance of 35 choirs in colourful dress and carrying their national flags captures the spirit of Kathaumixw as a gathering together of different peoples. Tonight's International Spotlights include the 11-voice male ensemble "Cantus" referred to as "a sonic blend so beaming and elastic that it seems to originate as a single gorgeously variegated voice" (Washington Post) and the Philippine Madrigal Singers who have been described as "the most beautiful sound on earth". Under the direction of Don James, the Philippine Madrigal Singers join forces with the Academy Chamber Choir, the Powell River Youth Choir, boy soprano Andy Rice and Ay-Laung Wang, organ, Rita Costanzi, harp, and Tobin Stokes, percussion, in the moving Chichester Psalms by Leonard Bernstein.
